ranging from the georgia coast to the tennessee mountains from the power brokers to tenant farmers ayers depicts a land of startling contrasts ayers takes us from remote southern towns revolutionized by the spread of the railroads to the statehouses where democratic redeemers swept away the legacy of reconstruction from the small farmers trapped into growing nothing but cotton to the new industries of birmingham from abuse and intimacy in the family to tumultuous public meetings of the prohibitionists he explores every aspect of society politics and the economy detailing the importance of each in the emerging new south central to the entire story is the role of race relations from alliances and friendships between blacks and whites to the spread of jim crows laws and disfranchisement the teeming nineteenth century south comes to life in these pages debate about church order has gone on for centuries within christianity and an end is nowhere in sight perhaps that is good since the debate shows the weaknesses of many ideas that need correction corporate decision making examines church order from a careful exegetical perspective with particular attention to the social world of the new testament while most works about church government address structure and qualities of leadership brown deals with the interaction of the people of the church both with their leaders and with one another in setting policy in brief though all believers in the young church of the new testament revered christ and his word as authoritative not all church decisions were top down from earthly leaders on the contrary many were from the bottom up this should come as no surprise to those familiar with jesus admonition in the gospels you have one teacher and you are all brothers

tarek cherkaoui reveals how geo political and ideological legacies of the past which divide the world into a dichotomy of us against them play a dominant role in reinforcing the ensuing polarisation of our media includes special sessions the author of hebrews is arguing that god himself has brought about the fulfillment of these institutions through his son s priesthood his once for all sacrifice and the new covenant he inaugurated in the last days these new institutions are never denied the jews in fact the context of the epistle presumes that these are primarily for the jews considering that the author was speaking to a jewish christian community the author is not arguing for the abandonment by god of the jewish people but rather for the abandonment of the shadowy means by which god s people drew near to him it is here we can speak of a qualified supersessionism according to the author of hebrews the levitical priesthood the mosaic covenant and the levitical sacrifices have been superseded by jesus priesthood the new covenant and jesus once for all sacrifice however we conclude that the polemical passages in hebrews do not promote hatred of the jews nor do they advocate the destruction of the jewish people rather the author of hebrews stresses the fulfillment of specific jewish institutions for the benefit of the jews it is this idea of fulfillment that rules out the charge that the epistle promotes the supercession of the jewish people because of god s great love for his people he has provided a superior way by which his people can draw near to him from the conclusion
